POSITION RESPONSIBILITIES:

The Public Education Specialist develops education programs and curricula, and coordinates and delivers this education in an effort to reduce risks in the community which lead to loss. Such education programs typically encompass, but are not limited to: fire prevention, first aid and CPR, disaster preparedness, injury prevention, fall prevention, and home fire safety. The position will have full responsibility and scope of assigned programs, curricula and events from initial assessment and design through to final evaluation. This position has considerable responsibility and oversight of assigned programming and budget allocation and functions as a member of the Community Risk Reduction team. Work is performed with considerable independence and is reviewed through meetings, regular status reports and results obtained. Complex and/or sensitive program or event issues are resolved at this level.

ESSENTIAL FUNCTIONS:

- Develop, implement and deliver program curriculum to meet organizational objectives for the Community Risk Reduction Division that is specific and age appropriate for the applicable audience(s) and supports the District's vision/mission
- Provide proactive community relations/education, through the writing, reviewing and editing of various public education communications (e.g. newsletter articles, emails, publications, etc.)
- Build and foster assigned long-term working relationships with external organizations, businesses and/or agencies to further the District's public education goals and interests (e.g. citizens, schools, community organizations, fire and life safety partnerships, etc.)
- Research, write, and participate in the development of content for public education mediums (e.g. video projects, slide shows, internet, website, social media, etc.)
- Coordinate assigned special events (e.g. open houses, festivals and events, etc.)

KNOWLEDGE OF AND SKILLS IN:

- Contemporary public education methods, techniques and learning styles to effectively deliver education material to all community members
- Understanding fire operations and services
- Techniques and practices of creating, organizing and coordinating curriculum, programs, activities and events
- Business letter writing, email communications and report preparation including English usage, spelling, grammar and punctuation
- Effective presentation skills to engage various audiences
- Communicate effectively both verbally and in writing to varying audiences
- Problem solving, managing multiple projects and providing excellent customer service

ABILITY TO:

- Develop and deliver public education programs
- Work without direct supervision, exercising independent judgment and personal initiative
- Work in a collaborative environment to achieve common goals
- Remain flexible and be open to scheduling changes

EDUCATION AND EXPERIENCE:

- Bachelor's Degree from an accredited college or university with major coursework in communication, education or related field
- Three (3) years of increasingly responsible experience in communications, education, or a related field
- Any combination of education and experience that provides the desired knowledge, skills and abilities to perform the essential duties of the position

LICENSE AND REQUIREMENTS:

- Valid Washington State driver's license
- Basic Life Support (BLS) First Aid & CPR Instructor or ability to obtain certification within 6 months
- International Fire Service Training Association (IFSTA) Fire and Life Safety Educator I certification or ability to obtain within 6 months
